

11 December 1958

25X1A9a

MEMORANDUM FOR: [REDACTED]

1. The Director, in my opinion, should not grant this request. This is an anti-Zionist group that insists that all Jews should be loyal citizens of their various nations and not be of dual nationality, one for the nation in which they have citizenship and another one for Israel.

2. Lessing Rosenwald; Cyrus Sulzberger of the NEW YORK TIMES; and the late Julius Ochs Adler, are among the people who have supported the American Council for Judaism in its battle against Zionists.

3. There are religious as well as political differences between the groups. The Zionists in large part, but not entirely, are Orthodox Jews while the Judaism people are, to a large extent, Reformed Jews.

4. Recommend that the Director not take any position between these groups; of course, if he does not take a position he could not issue the statement requested.

STANLEY J. GROGAN
Assistant to the Director